A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENTS

Hello everyone!

We will send an email with the Zoom link this week. If you are unable to Zoom on Monday, April 12, 2021, please reach out to a sister who you may be able to join in a safe environment and connect together on Zoom with the group. We will conduct a meeting following the presentation. DKG/OSO State Convention is April 9 and 10 via Zoom. Please join if you can; register early for the link. You have all received the notices via email. And, the convention is FREE!! As most of us are getting COVID - 19 vaccines, we will meet in person together in May at The Servicemen's Pavilion in Boardman Park at 5:00pm. Details to follow from the spring social committee.

Kathy & Holly, Co-Presidents

Birthday Celebrations in April

Roan Craig (4/5)

Sr. Charlotte Italiano (4/2)

Deborah Melouchkin (4/9)

Co-President Kathy Murdock called the meeting to order at 6:10 PM. A prayer was given by Janet Donofrio. A motion to approve the minutes of the November meeting was made by Barbara Ade and seconded by Barbara Murray. Motion passed. There were no changes to the Treasurer's report. Treasurer Mary Tsimouris reminded everyone dues for an Active Member remain at $78.00 and a Reserve Member is $30.00. She also reminded us about the $100 donation to the Joint Council DKG Scholarship. A motion was made by Mary Beth White and seconded by Marian Zickefoose to send the donation to the YSU Foundation. Motion passed. The meeting recessed for the presentation by Susan Petrone, author of The Heebie Jeebie Girl, an historical fiction novel. It is based on a true story about a family living in the Smoky Hollow neighborhood of Youngstown, Ohio in 1977. The business meeting resumed at 7:10PM. Under Committee Reports, the Membership Committee reported that new members will be voted on at the April meeting and Induction will be at the May meeting. Historian JoAnn Vlacancich requested any articles or information about anyone who has been a member of DKG for 25 years or longer be sent to her. Judy Cebriak, chairman of the Committee for Educational Excellence reported $80.00 was sent to Schools for Africa. Publicity chairman, Marian Zickefoose reported that an article was placed in The Review. Spring Social chairman, Susan Harris has not been in touch. The possibility of having a box lunch at a pavilion in Boardman Park was discussed. Fall Social chairman, Laura Sullivan said she would be checking into possible locations for our September 13, 2021 meeting. Under Old Business, there has been no response from The English Center. Please make the following Yearbook correction, Mary Ellen Wilcox's cell number is 330-503-5041. Sue Holloway is still in Hampton Woods. Please call her or send cards. Under New Business, a thank you to Mary Beth White for all her help with the December bookmark and Foster Care Project at Boardman Park. Feel free to continue making bookmarks. They are greatly appreciated. Holly will continue to try and reach Susan Harris so final plans can be made for the Spring Social. Chair Yoga classes continue on Tuesday and Thursday. DKG/OSO Convention is April 9 and 10 via ZOOM. You must register online to participate. It was suggested a donation to the YWCA Young Women with Bright Futures Project be made. A motion was made by Barbara Ade and seconded by Derrie Wilkes. Motion passed. We will try to get someone to speak at our April meeting about Rowan Sweeney Park. An update on the Tri-County Meetings: we do not host a meeting until 2026. Ellen Conrad and her husband are on the road. They joined us from Melbourne, Florida. They have been traveling through
